

18:5 and you shall keep my statutes etc
and shall live by them

ושמרתם את חקתי וגו'
וחי בהם

This is the well-known verse from which our sages learnt that we should break the commandments in order to save life.

However, Rashi disagrees and says "you shall live by them" refers to הבא לעולם הבא meaning one will inherit the world to come.

He argues that it can't mean that you won't die in this world since every one has to die eventually.
