

19:3:

every man should fear his mother and father

איש אמו ואביו תיראו

Also in שמות 20:11 it says:

honor your father and mother

כבד את אביך ואת אמך

Rashi points out that the natural way is for us to fear our father, as he is the one who normally disciplines us, and honor our mother, as she feeds us, clothes us and takes care of us.

For this reason, Hashem considered it necessary, in two separate places in the Torah, to tell us we must also do the opposite to the natural order.

Fear our mother and honor our father.