

After one reaches the age of 60, one is no longer subject to death by Heavenly decree.

We learn this from 14:29:

... in this wilderness shall fall ... from twenty years old and upwards

Rashi explains that since they were 40 years in the desert then above the age of sixty they were not punished.