

11:7 And the pig ...who doesn't chew the cud, is unclean for you.

ואת החזיר ... והוא גרה לא יגר טמא הוא לכם

The text is a hint.

The pig has a cloven hoof, which is one of the signs of a kosher animal, but at the moment he doesn't chew the cud (the other sign).

However, if his nature changes in the future, and he starts to chew the cud, he will be allowed to us for food.
